

PUBLIC LEADER

EIGHTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1899.

ONE CENT.

In the Matter of Diamonds,

Watches of every kind, Jewelry of every description and latest styles, we can show you the largest line you can find anywhere and at the lowest prices. One of the sights of our city is the beautiful display of cut glass bric-a-brac, fine hand painted china, fancy lamps, brass tables, and ever so many other things. Don't forget when you want anything in the line, for a wedding present, or any other occasion, you can find just what you want at BALLENGER'S, Jeweler and Optician.

The Feast of Bargains in Good CLOTHING!

Men's and Boys' Shoes and Men's Furnishing Goods set before the people through Hechinger's retiring-from-business sale has awakened an interest with the buying community that the conventional clothing sales advertisement make impossible. It is a positive fact that customers from distances as far as 50 miles from Mayville are taking advantage of this sale. It is known that the stock consists of only first class merchandise, and when considered the fact that the reduction of prices enables the public to buy the high class goods Hechinger & Co. carry for less than ordinary goods sold elsewhere it is no wonder that the storerooms are daily crowded. Thousands of dollars worth of goods that were contracted for before Mr. Hechinger's retirement to retire from business are daily arriving. They share the same fate of those that were already in stock. They will be marked at prices that they will make them sell. On Wednesday our will be on sale. To those who have worn them they need no recommendation. Those who have never worn them should try one. They are the best Straw Hats in the world. Ask the other hatters in town.

"Hopkins" Straw Hats!

Stockholders Meeting Hechinger & Co

Ten Years Ago Women's Peerless Lisle Thread Stockings Sold for 50 Cents a Pair!

And they were fully as good as stockings of other makes that sold for 75c. Years kept rolling around and improvements were made from day to day. Gradually we bought lower and better, and in turn we handed to our customers the results of better buying. Slowly we hammered the price down, and today Women's Peerless Fast Black Lisle Thread Stockings are 25 Cents!

And better than those sold ten years ago for 50c. We believe in Mayville. We believe in Paved Streets. We believe in Improvements, whether in Hosiery, in Cities or in the Police Force. (This last is to arrest your attention.)

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEADER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mrs. Judge left this morning for a visit at Cincinnati.

Miss Elizabeth P. Key has gone to Valparaiso, Ind., to spend the summer.

Mr. George W. Tudor is home from an extended visit to his son in New York.

Misses Ethel Lloyd and Edith Ballenger spent a few days in the county the first of the week visiting Miss Carrie Long.

Mr. Claude H. Tolle has accepted the position of manager of the Rockwell Hotel.

Mr. Marcus Davis was called to Parisburg this week by the death of his sister.

William Corwin Allen, a native of this city, died a few days ago at West Union, O., aged 71.

The petition for payment of the seventy-six insurance companies recently filed for conscription to the insurance rate has been withdrawn from Governor Bradley's table.

Charles Day, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Glenn, died Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, aged one week. The burial took place Monday at Washington. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn sympathize with them in their sorrow.

Irene, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reed of Washington, who died April 25th, will be buried at that place tomorrow. On account of the smallpox scare at that place there will be no other services except those at Cemetery.

ROSENAU BROS.,

KINGS OF LOW PRICES. PROPRIETORS BEE HIVE

AS YOU LOOK AT IT.
My neighbor's girl's a nuisance,
And I wish they'd move away;
They've purchased a piano,
And she's learning how to play;
It's "tump, tump, tump," day after day,
The same thing over and over,
I wish the strings would break and they
Could shut that noise away.
My boy has got a fiddle,
And he's learning how to play;
I expect that he'll be getting
Both and famous, too, some day;
He practices ten hours
Out of every twenty-four,
And I wonder why the neighbors
Aren't friendly any more.

WELCOME CITIZEN.

Dr. A. N. Ellis, the Specialist, Locates Here For Active Practice.

Most Union (O. Selon).

Dr. A. N. Ellis, the well-known eye and ear specialist, has located at Mayville. Five years ago Dr. Ellis gave up his medical practice at Cincinnati and moved to his late ancestral home in Spring Township, expect to devote his entire time and efforts to farming, but since then so many people have called on him with diseases of the eye, ear and throat that he was compelled to settle and open an office in Mayville.

Dr. Ellis has had many long years of experience in his profession. He was connected for five years with the largest hospital and sanitarium in London, England. We are glad he has located in a town convenient to our people.

GENEROUS ACTION.

Colonel Charles D. Pearce Donates Toll on the Mayville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike.

On Friday, May 5th, the county's lease on the Mayville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike will expire.

When the lease was made in 1898, it was hoped that by the expiration of the year the county bonds would be issued and that the Fiscal Court would purchase the road outright, as contemplated in the lease.

Such has not come to pass, however, and unless the Fiscal Court enters into some new arrangement nothing is left for the Turnpike Company to do but to restore the gates and resume the collection of toll.

But Colonel Charles D. Pearce, President of the Company, informs The Leader that he intends to donate to the Board of Trade the tolls on his road from the 5th to the 9th of May, covering County Court Day, May 8th.

This is a very generous act on Mr. Pearce's part, and stamps him as a public-spirited citizen.

Washington and General Howe's Dog.

While the British occupied Philadelphia and the American force lay in winter quarters at Valley Forge, one day as the Washington and his staff were dining, a fine hunting dog, which was evidently lost, came to seek something to eat. The dog's name, "General Howe," was given to it. Washington ordered that the dog should be fed, and then he sent it to Philadelphia. The British commander in reply, "General Howe," complimented the dog to his hands, and by the inscription on the card, appears to belong to General Howe. UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA

It has been nearly a week since any Louisville gentleman has announced his candidacy for the State Senatorship. What's the matter?

Why, bless your sweet soul, the Editor of The Louisville Courier has been the only one within the gift of the people of this District—not even to please Mono.

The fellows who profess to want harmony in the Republican party in Kentucky are now busily engaged in misrepresenting Governor Bramson on the one side, and naming President McKinley on the other. Waged right, gentlemen, let's have harmony—even if we have to fight it.

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

POSTMASTER MISSING.

A shortage of $1,200 is alleged, but the Bondsman Will Not Suffer—His Father Takes Charge.

ASHLAND, Ky., April 25.—The young man Rogers, who was appointed postmaster at this place by the president on the recommendation of Congressman Pugh and took the office in little over one year ago was missing Tuesday morning. A discrepancy in his accounts of $1,200 is reported. His local bondsmen are secured from any loss by a guaranteed company.

His father has charge of the business at present. Rogers is a sprightly young business man and well calculated to do the business, and his disappearance was no surprise to some persons who had been in business with him, but to others it was a surprise.

Kentucky's Convict Parole Law.
FRANKFORT, Ky., April 25.—Circuit Judge Cantrill, of state fiscal court, Tuesday morning decided unconstitutional the convict parole law which has been on the Kentucky statute books for years, but which has been inoperative until the present prison commissioners came into office. The suit to test the case was brought by John C. Dugan, of Bell county, who is serving a 21 year sentence here for the murder of a brother of Congressman Colson. Dugan had been paroled by the commission, but the prison warden refused to recognize it.

Kentucky's Key to C. M.
VANKLEIGH, Ky., April 25.—The state convention of Kentucky K. O. U. A. M. began its annual session here Tuesday, with State Councilor Byron Hill, of Covington, in the chair. Delegates are here from nearly all the counties in the state. The official reports will say that during the greater part of the year the order has grown wonderfully in this state. The council will be in session three days, and the delegates are being well entertained here. State vice councilor of Newport will be the next state councilor.

Horse Menstritis.

At last there has been a... Riding Cultivator that Cultivates. We heard of it and bought it. It has six shovels, three on each beam. These beams are carried by an immense coil spring, leaving the shovels flexible, so flexible that by merely inclining the foot the operator can accurately follow a row, plowing right up to the plant. If you see it you will buy it. We have the largest line of Riding and Walking Cultivators in the Ohio Valley, and it costs you nothing to look at them.

A live oak BEDROOM STEEL CULTIVATOR for only $2.00. A solid oak BEDROOM STEEL—big bed, dresser and washstand—$8.85.

Just received, a carload of STEEL ROOFING that was bought before the last advance. I can save you money on Roofing. Carry all kinds in stock. V. Crimp, Double V. Crimp and Roll and Cap.

A carload of CARLOR STAND with fancy shill, 45c., and everything else in the Furniture line just as cheap. Our Furniture Department is replete with all the newest styles—all sold on our famous 10 per cent. plan. We sell good Furniture lower than any other house on earth. We handle good Furniture—no trash. You can sit in our chairs without fear of falling. You can lean back in our wood seat chairs without breaking off the back.

SOLID OAK BEDSTEAD, $11.15.
